

Questions for Admissions Panel

- How important are extracurricular activities in the admissions review?
- How do you differentiate among high schools?
- Do AP courses matter?
- What do you look for in an admissions essay?
- Who should write the letters of recommendation?
- Are college visits necessary?
- How does a student set up a college visit?
- Should students send supplementary materials with their admissions applications?
- How important are standardized tests?
- How many times should a student take standardized tests?
- Do most colleges super score?
- Are interviews important?
- Should a student take honors courses and risk getting lower grades or stick to college prep courses to get higher scores?
- What are the advantages of applying early action?
- Should a student consider early decision if they are not sure they wish to attend a particular college?
- How is my GPA calculated?