What are the differences between high school and college accommodations for students with a learning,
psychological/emotional or physical disability?

What is the role of the student/parent/school counselor in the college search and admissions process for a student with a learning, psychological/emotional or physical disability?

Should students disclose their disability in the admission process?

How do students apply for college level accommodations? What testing and/or documentation is necessary?

What is the process for putting accommodations in place?
What is the role of the student?

Who is responsible for notifying college professors of the accommodations to be made in the classroom?

What should you do to prepare for the transition to college?
