Instructions: Congratulations on making your decision on plans for after high school! Please cut out a mortarboard and write the details of your career choice in the blank space on the mortarboard – for example, "U.S. Navy" or "Working at X-Y-Z Company as a XXXX."

SHARE YOUR COLLEGE ACCEPTANCES!

Primary Sponsor:

Department of Education

Instructions: To celebrate your plans for after high school, we encourage you to write each college or university's name that you've been accepted to on a pennant (one name per pennant), and hang the pennant on your locker. When you eliminate a college, simply remove that pennant from your locker. Once your final college decision is made, you should have just one pennant left hanging! Congratulator to you!
